- (i) the last site you have visited;
- (j) the pages of our Website you access; and

- (k) your IP Address.
- 4.2 Please note that it may be possible to identify you from information collected automatically from your visit(s) to our Website.
- 4.3 We may use a statistical analytics software tool such as Google Analytics and software known as cookies which transmit data to Google servers located in the United States of America. Google Analytics does not identify individual users or associate your IP Address with any other data held by Google.
- 4.4 If you do not wish to grant us the right to use cookies to gather information about you while you are using our Website, then you may elect to set your browser settings to disable cookies. This may cause parts of our Website to not function properly.

5 How we collect and store data and transmit Personal Information

- 5.1 We usually collect and store information in paper, physical and electronic from you in person or when you communicate with us by telephone, email, web-based form, letter, facsimile or other means, including:
 - (a) When you initially contact us over the phone;
 - (b) When we provide you with our services including:
 - (i) If you contact us by phone, during that initial call;
 - (ii) When you attend a Physio Gym, when you complete Patient Information Form and provide us with a patient consent; and
 - (iii) When treatments and services are provided to you, for example to record what occurred and how you are progressing towards your goal(s).
 - (c) When we provide you with assistance or support for our products or services;
 - (d) When you participate in our functions, events or activities;
 - (e) When you request that we provide you with information concerning our products or services; and
 - (f) If you complete any forms requesting information from you, complete any survey or provide feedback to us concerning our products or services.
- 5.2 Where practicable we will only collect information from you personally. However, we may collect Personal Information from other sources including:
 - (a) From your guardian or responsible person;
 - (b) From your other health care professionals, such as a treating specialist, radiologist, pathologist, hospital or other health professional;

- (c) In an emergency situation we may also need to collect Personal Information from your relatives, friends or your nominated emergency contact.
- 5.3 As part of providing our services we may hold records such as x-rays, CT scans, videos, photos and audio recordings which may constitute Personal Information.
- 5.4 Please note that we use our own and third party servers including our website hosts, data backups and payment gateway(s), which may be located overseas and as such your Personal Information will likely be transmitted overseas as part of the operation of our Website.
- 5.5 We take reasonable steps to protect your Personal Information by:
 - (a) Securing our physical premises and storing physical records of data in cabinets which are locked at the close of business;
 - (b) Placing password protection and access control over databases to limit access and protect electronic information from unauthorised interference, access, modification and disclosure; and
 - (c) Taking regular back-ups of our electronic systems.

6 When you will have the option of not identifying yourself

- 6.1 We may be able to provide you with limited information in the absence of your identifying yourself but generally we will be unable to provide you with services unless you have identified yourself.
- 6.2 Where you choose not to provide requested information, it may seriously impact our ability to help you reach your goal(s). Where possible we will try to advise you of the potential consequences of you failing to provide information that we might reasonably request.

7 Why we collect your Personal Information

- 7.1 The purposes for which we collect and hold your Personal Information include:
 - (a) To deliver services and treatments to you;
 - (b) To provide you with aftermarket services, such as seeking your feedback, addressing any further requests you may have in connection with our services;
 - (c) To manage orders and visits made to our Website operated in conjunction with our business, including analysing data collected from our Website concerning site visits and activities of users on our Website. This helps us run our Website more efficiently and give you a better experience online. We use information from Google Analytics to help further improve your experience in using our Website;
 - (d) To conduct research, compile or analyse statistics relevant to the operations of our business or in relation to public health or public safety;

- (e) To create backups of our business records; and
- (f) For direct marketing purposes as set out below.

8 How we disclose Personal Information

- 8.1 We will not use your Personal Information for a purpose other than those set out above without your further consent.
- 8.2 We will not sell, trade or rent your Personal Information to any third parties for marketing purposes without your consent.
- 8.3 We will disclose your Personal Information if we are required to do so under law or if the disclosure is made in connection with either the normal operation of our business in a way that you might reasonably expect, for example to process an insurance claim on your behalf, or if such disclosure is incidental to IT services being provided to our business, or in connection with any insurance or warranty claim or for the resolution of any dispute that arises between you and us. This disclosure may involve your Personal Information being disclosed overseas.
- 8.4 For example we may disclose your Personal Information:
 - (a) In connection with a claim being made to Medicare or your private health insurer which may involve disclosure via a payment processing company;
 - (b) When your authorised representative, such as an accountant or lawyer, contact us in connection with providing you with services;
 - (c) If the disclosure is requested by a government agency or the courts and we are obliged to comply.
- 8.5 We may also disclose your Personal Information if you choose to participate in online or “app” based service offerings whereby your Personal Information may be disclosed to and stored in software which is operated by a third party. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that such third parties are required to deal with your Personal Information in a manner no less restrictive than set out in our Privacy Policy. Personal Information disclosed in this way will be transmitted offshore, including to the United States of America.

9 How we use Personal Information for direct marketing

- 9.1 We may contact you from time to time to inform you about existing and new products and services that we feel you may be interested in.
- 9.2 We will ensure that any e-mail you are sent by us as direct marketing complies with the SPAM Act and contains a no-cost ‘unsubscribe’ option so that you can remove yourself from any further marketing.

9.3 You can also call or write to us to request that your details be removed from our direct marketing list.

9.4 Our direct marketing list may be operated by software and servers located overseas and as such your Personal Information may be sent overseas as part of our marketing.

10 How to access or correct your Personal Information or make an enquiry or complaint

10.1 If you wish to access or correct the Personal Information we hold about you, or make a complaint, please contact us in writing:

Privacy Officer
Physio Gym
PO BOX 111
LEICHHARDT NSW 2040

or by email to privacy@PhysioGym.net.au

10.2 Please note that in order to disclose information to you in response to such a request we may require you to provide us with sufficient comfort as to your identity.

10.3 We may also (depending on the request) charge you a fee to provide this service, which we will inform you of at the time. All requests for Personal Information will be handled in a reasonable period of time.

10.4 We may be required by law to retain certain healthcare records for certain periods of time depending on your age at the time we provide you with services.

10.5 We may deny you access to your medical records in certain circumstances permitted by law. For example, if disclosure may cause, in our opinion, a serious threat to your health or safety we may not disclose the information. We will always tell you why we have chosen not to disclose the information to you and the options you have to respond to our decision.

10.6 If you are not satisfied with our handling of a complaint or the outcome of a complaint you may make an application to the Australian Information Commissioner or the Privacy Commissioner in your State or Territory.

11 Updates to this privacy policy

11.1 This policy may be updated from time to time and the most up to date version will be located at our Website.
